Dear Stan:

It's nice to hear from you again. Sorry I can't buy anything now as I just spent + virtually all my money on an 1821 5 D. gold. RAECCA sold the Saslow collection Jan 18th and I bid low on an 1821 Five thinking I wouldn't get it. They did not give the die variety <sup>or</sup> ~~an~~ past owner in the catalog <sup>without it</sup> which might have kept the price down. After receiving the coin I wrote and asked for any history on it. They said it was from J.F. Bell 1958. In Breen work on Fives he lists Bell II Lot 599 1821 Unc. as the rarest var. ( B-2A) My coin is Sharp AU few tiny edge nicks but is certainly that coin as the 8 in the date is much lower than other numerals. Breen knows of only one other but calls it a High R-7 as other pieces without plates in Catalogues might be this Var. as he was unaware of the 3 varieties until recently. Anyhow I paid $2300 for it and it is rare as a date (16-18 pieces.) I am glad to have it but I won't be buying coins for some time now as I put all my eggs in one basket. If you ever find a buyer who might pay $3000 or therabouts I might sell it. I realize that someday I will sell it and dealers here wouldn't touch it as only big auctions and gold specialists such as you can find buyers for this type of material. I noticed that the 1821 has virually never been offered by dealers but has only been offered at major auctions where ~~important~~ <sup>important</sup> collections are sold. Now with the Lilly coins in the Museum that make 2 pieces there of 1821. Its interesting to note that in <sup>the</sup> 1937 W. Raymond Catalog the 1821 listed $500.00 and the 1813 only $20.00! Sorry I spouted off about this coin but I had to tell someone for <sup>I</sup> ~~am~~ <sup>am</sup> real happy to get the rarest variety of a rare date. Please keep my ~~letter~~ <sup>letter</sup> as you know I will have the coin and you will have I'st chance at it if you ever find a buyer.

Truly, Dale

Dear Stan :

Received your kind letter from you and had learned very little regarding my 1921 Double Eagle I had written you about and also about your inquiry in connection with that 1925 - 100 Francs in GOLD of Switzerland.

You mention in your letter about your having to offer in nice EXTREMELY FINE condition, the 1871-CC. Double Eagle at % 625.00 and the finest to be found or known of, is the 1908-S. Double Eagles at an asking price of $ 500.00 .

Will let you have my pair of the 1908-S. Half Eagles in exchange for your EF specimen of your 1871-CC. Double Eagle. In view of the results of the Stack sale of the Miles gold coins, I am sure that my 1908-S. Half Eagles are worth every bit of the price you are asking for your 1871-CC. Double Eagle. Enclosed find a page from the coming auction sale in California and you will see for yourself as to how rare the dealers consider the 1908-S. Half Eagles.

I would like to have your 1908-S. SUPERB GEM specimen of your 1908-S. Double Eagle , but I do have an average BU specimen, which I would like to trade for your FINEST KNOWN piece plus a premium to boot. Will appreciate your suggestions on same.

Were looking forward to your acquiring that very finest known of the BU GEM specimen of the 1871-CC Double Eagle about which you had written me about and same was to have been gotten by you within a months period after I had received your kind letter.

Will await your kind answer on the above offerings.

Yours very truly,

Felix J. Polek

P. S. Had changed my mind about the page from the auction sale that will be held by Abe Kosoff on Feb. 25th Lot No. 1370 I hate to spoil the catalog

Dear Stan:

You haven't heard from me because I have come to our Florida home -- and in addition, I have had many changes of business. Furthermore, our house in Pittsburgh was recently robbed, and we have no idea just what all is missing.

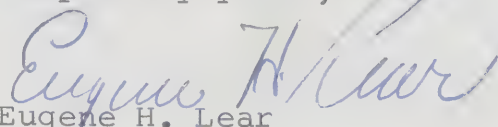

The coins you mention in your letter do not fit into my ideas at the moment, however, for replacement, I will be interested in Double Eagles dated:

1854	1157
1862
1864	1161-S
1866	1167-S
1871

I wish these coins to be in EF condition--or better. I originally purchased them as EF from someone (I hope not you) but I have my doubts if the ones I have are VF.

You may reach me at my Florida address given below.

Very truly yours,

Dear Stan :

Received your kind letter and many thanks for same.
In regards to the 1881 - $ 3.00 gold piece, I would prefer a SHARP FROSTY GEM and I do mean a GEM. As for that 1871-CC. which you claim to be a CHOICE EF specimen, I would let you have my 1908-S. and 1911-D. Half Eagles UNC. If agreeable, you can send me the 1871-CC. Double Eagle of yours, providing that it is a sharp EXTREMELY FINE specimen.

As for that 1920-S. Double Eagle, well too bad that you cannot take from me some very rare silver Crowns and Half Crowns and rare Canadian coins with which you really could make yourself some money in return for your acquisition from Stark's that perfect GEM specimen of that 1920-S. Double Eagle. I take notice by the different ads of so many dealers in foreign coins, who want to buy such coins.

If you care not to do this, well I will have to forget about it and I already have decided to contact the foreign coin dealers and sell my foreign coins to them for cash and maybe around August I will have the neccessary CASH to buy a GEM 1920-S. Double Eagle.

You mention of having in EXTREMELY FINE condition, the 1797 Eagle with a SMALL EAGLE, but you quote no price for same. I had begged you some five times, that every time you list me a gold piece that you are offering for sale, never forget to quote asking price for the gold coin or any other coin. As for that SUPERB SHARP GEM of the 1850 Double Eagle at $ 750.00 is too rich for my blood . Too bad that you cannot track down such a SHARP GEM beauty of the 1871-CC. Double Eagle ?

I will though take your 1867 Double Eagle which you offer in a truly CHOICE BU condition at $ 200.00 and this represents the full catalogue value . I would let you have my 1911-D. Half Eagle UNC in exchange for your BU 1867 Double Eagle, for the 1911-D. Half Eagle catalogues at $ 250.00 . No matter whether you agree or not, I will be grateful for your HOLDING that 1867 Double Eagle.

Think over my proposition in regards to my Foreign Silver Crowns and Half-Crowns and you will be well ahead.

Yours very truly,

Felix J. Polek

Dear Stan :

Received your letter of offerings and comments and I still want that 1888-O. Eagle in BU condition at $ 80.00 and the same goes for your SUPERB FLAWLESS GEMS of the 1882-CC - 1883-CC - 1884-CC. Double Eagles. You could HOLD these for me until we can settle first with the 1871-CC Double Eagle, which is of great importance to me. I take notice that since you had last acquired from Mr. Kleinman that AU specimen of the 1871-CC. Double Eagle and you graded it as an EF specimen, did you notice that Mr. Kleinman is offering another AU specimen, but the price is much higher, maybe you should gotten it. I wish to use my rare Double Eagles towards our deal in regards to the acquisition of the 1871-CC Double Eagle, either a BU GEM or a truly CHOICE AU specimen. In case this cannot be accomplished shortly, then I would work with you on a GEM BU specimen of the 1871-CC. Double Eagle.

At this very moment I am willing to work with you a deal in your furnishing me with BU and I do mean BU of the following Double Eagles., 1872-CC - 1874-CC - 1877-CC - 1893-CC . If this is possible, let me know with your rock bottom asking prices.

On my pair of the 1859-P. Double Eagles that I wrote you about, I would have to have an allowance of $ 325.00 each and I could have sold them last month, but I decided to retain them for our deal in regards to the 1871-CC or 1891-CC. Double Eagles, but the 1871-CC Double Eagle comes first, either BU GEM or a CHOICE AU specimen. I believe that my best bet is to send the 1859 pair of the Double Eagles out to you first, although my $ 325.00 allowance still stands regardless your judgement on same.

Will await your true and honest comments.

Yours very truly,

Felix J. Polek

P.S. Since you describe the 1882-CC - 1883-CC - 1884-CC and the 1867 Double Eagles as MUSEUM PIECES, what about the St. Gaudens series of the less rare dates, but of SUPERB " SHARP STRIKE "

I think you better save me a true GEM of the 1867 Double Eagle to go along with the three (3) CARSON CITY Double Eagles.

Gold

June 17, 1969

Mr. Stan Kesselman
15 West 81st St.
New York, N.Y.

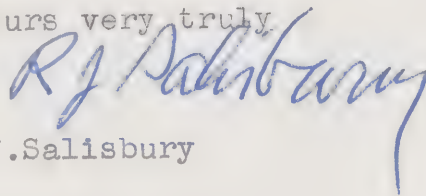

Dear Sir:

I have your letter and check and I am enclosing the 1870 - $3 gold piece.

I believe I will sell the 1810 and the 1798 $5 pieces for your offer of $600.00. This is a very low price for these two coins but I am really making an effort to reduce my stock.

Thanks for your check.

Yours very truly

R.J. Salisbury

Dear Stan :

Received your three (3) CALSON CITY Double Eagles, but I am returning back to you the 1884-CC. for the simple reason that I do not like the appearance of it and I hate " burnished " gold pieces, as that blackish appearance does no justice to the coin.

that I am returning

I want you to replace the 1884-CC Double Eagle back to you with another specimen, that will be a real GEM with the original gold color and not of the blackish appearance. In the second place you are over-charging me by $ 25.00 , because in your letter of June 19th in which you had quoted me this GEM 1884-CC. Double at a price of $ 225.00 Eagle and now you are asking $ 250.00 and I hate to see such mis-quoting on your price. I have your letter listing your 1884-CC Double Eagle as a BU GEM at $ 225.00 and to me this 1884-CC Double Eagle that I am now returning back to you and if I had it, I am certain that you would not allow me a cent over $ 190.00 .

If you do not have a much superior 1884-CC. Double Eagle than this one I am returning , then kindly send me your 1877-CC. AU-UNC Double Eagle that you quote at $ 225.00 and with it you might as well let me have that BU 1888-C. Eagle and this will actually close this deal.

If you wish to save time, you might as well send me along with the 1877-CC. AU-UNC Double Eagle and the B 1888-C. Eagle the 1874-CC. Double Eagle on which your asking price is $ 225.00 . Will workout something.

If you wish you can send me your latest listing. You tell me that you sold a Double Eagle to Mr. Youngerman, how is it that some weeks ago Mr. Youngerman advertised a BU GEM of the 1891-CC Double Eagle and you did not bother buying it ?

Yours very truly,

Felix J. Tolson

Dear Stan:

Do not need ten of the 5 peso Cubas at $26.50,
but can use five.

They must be originals and not the strikes that are being produced today. I believe that you would know the difference, so don't send these.

How about 10 pesos. If you have a few please advise price. What other foreign gold can you supply. If list available please send.

Thanks.

Dear Stan,

Sorry haven't written until now but I have been busy. I think I'll hold out for $2500 cash on the 1821 as I think its worth it. You are right in that there are few collectors, yet I feel there are only 17 pieces including 2 in Smithsonian. The 1824 which I think there are 13 known brought ~~at~~ ~~$3100~~ $3100 in only Good in a Kagin Sale. I guess somebody will buy great rarities for prestige. I feel that since the 1821 had such a high value in 50 yr. old catalog<sup>5</sup> that it is an important coin as other dates like 1895 Dol. and proof $3.00 had almost no value then. I will hold on to the coin <sup>1894</sup> if you need it in future. I have BU 1894 2½ Dol. if you want it. It is scarce and lists $165. If you need it sometime make offer,

Till later,

Dale

Dear Stan;

Sorry to take so long in answering your note.

I do not know of any dealer that likes to hear that he is making a bad name for himself.

There are some dealers that probably do not care too much, but in my case I do care and would like to know what it pertained to. As you know there is always two sides to every story.

I have been in the coin business only 6 yrs and I know as you do that you can not please everyone.

The gold (the rarer pieces) were a late consignment and I did not check it as close as I should have.

I checked the 1799 Eagle after the catalogue was printed & did not like the look of it & did not offer it for floor bidding. The conignor says it was ok. So I told him we would ship it to you without making any suggestion as to what I thought & see what you had to say & you proved me right.

Thus I should probably pay you for your services.

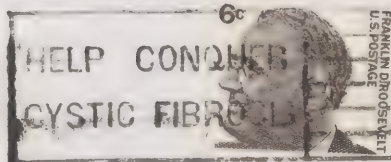

Stan would like to hear any other comment you may have.

Kindest Regards

Dick Martini

Dear Stan:

I broke all my rules and shipped you the gold you wanted as per your bids. I do not wait twenty or more days for checks to clear as most but rather ship upon payment.

I received the two coins yesterday that you refused & you mentioned a check for $219 which was not inclosed for coins you kept. Since I shipped to a person who had never done business with me before I required a return receipt + Restricted delivery. The total due is: Coins $217+ Shipping charges of 2.19 for a total of $219.19. I shall expect your check by return mail.

The # 1-- $1 that you refused was plainly advertised as having a scratched obv.

I have the following gold at present:
